CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS REST
HISTORIC ELMWOOD CEMETERY
MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

This is a list of the Confederate soldiers and veterans buried in Confederate Soldiers Rest, Historic Elmwood Cemetery, Memphis, Tennessee. This list includes date of interment, State and regiment, rank, and company, if known, based on compiled service records and Cemetery records. Buried there also is an 8 eight year old, Charles G. Alford, with his father, J. L. Alford, and an unmarried school teacher, Mary Boddie. Maybe the most famous veteran buried there is Kit Dalton who rode with the James gang after the war. A monument was in erected in Confederate Soldiers Rest on June 5, 1878 in memory of the Confederate dead of Memphis. On the front of the monument are cut, in raised, polished letters, the words "Confederate Dead." On the back of the monument is the following inscription: "Illis Victoriam Non Immortatitatem Fata Negaverunt" (The Fates Which Refused Them Victory Did Not Deny Them Immortality).
